Joint Application of
Journal Communications, Inc.,
Transferor,
Norlight Telecommunications, Inc.,
Licensee
and
Q-Comm Corporation, Transferee,
For Grant of Authority Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934 and Section 63.04 and 63.18 of the Commission's Rules to Transfer of Control of Norlight Telecommunications, Inc., a
Domestic and International Carrier, to
Q-Comm Corporation

Journal Communications, Inc. (“Journal” or “Transferor”), Norlight Telecommunications, Inc. (“Norlight”), and Q-Comm Corporation (“Q-Comm” or “Transferee”) (Journal, Norlight and Q-Comm collectively, “Applicants”), through their undersigned counsel, hereby supplement their Application in response to informal information requests of staff. Specifically, Applicants state as follows:

1. The Journal Company is a Wisconsin corporation.
2. The Q-Comm Ops (as defined in the Application) are all U.S.-based telecommunications companies.

3. Except for DukeNet Communications, Inc. ("DukeNet"), to its knowledge, Duke Energy Corporation ("Duke Energy") does not hold a 10% direct or indirect interest in any telecommunications company.

4. The second sentence in the first full paragraph on page 11 of the Application had a typographical error and should have read: "In addition and to its knowledge, Duke Energy Corporation does not hold a 10% direct or indirect interest in any entity holding a domestic or international Section 214 license except for its subsidiary DukeNet Communications, Inc. (FRN 0007736853).

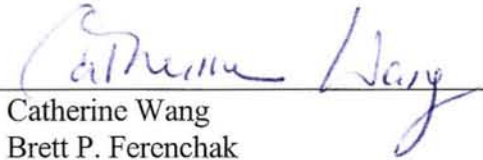

5. DukeNet provides telecommunications services in Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina. DukeNet has applied for, or is in the process of applying for, licenses to provided services in Florida and Virginia, but is not providing services at this time.

6. Al and John Cinelli do not have an interest in any telecommunications company except for those owned by Q-Comm.

Applicants respectfully request streamlined treatment to permit Applicants to complete the transaction by January 25, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
